• Description ref n°6509 •

In the picturesque setting of the village of Villeréal is an exceptional residence, a magnificent medieval house that evokes the bewitching charm of the past. As soon as you enter, you will be captivated by the grandiose atmosphere that emanates, welcomed by a large living room where the tiles on the floor, the exposed beams and the old functional fireplace with its wood stove give a warm and authentic atmosphere. .

This sumptuous living room opens onto a television area, offering a corner conducive to relaxation and conviviality. Continuing your visit, you will discover a fully equipped open kitchen, designed with exquisite attention to detail. The impeccable finishes and the DEKTON worktop bring a touch of sophistication, while the adjoining dining area invites you to savor delicious culinary moments with family or friends. The view from the kitchen overlooks a sleeping area located on the ground floor, where you will be enchanted by the treasures that unfold.

On one side, a sumptuous bathroom with an elegant travertine shower, on the other side, a generously sized bedroom presents itself with grace. The exposed beams delicately recall the history and authentic character of this residence, infusing an atmosphere steeped in history and elegance.

In addition, the bedroom and the kitchen open onto a large inner courtyard, where you can lounge and relax in peace. With approximately 50 square meters of space, this courtyard invites you to enjoy a peaceful and harmonious environment, embellished with a sheltered space that will allow you to savor the sweet moments in the open air, not overlooked. A practical cellar and a garage are also accessible from the ground floor.

Upstairs, a beautiful wooden staircase leads you to four spacious, recently renovated bedrooms awaiting you with their distinct charms. Each of them has been redesigned with meticulous attention, harmoniously combining comfort and aesthetics. One of the bedrooms has a private bathroom, offering a real haven of tranquility.

An attic located on the top floor offers you additional space for storage only.
