• Description ref n°7090 •

Charming lot and Garonne property located between Miramont de Guyenne and Marmande.

Located in the heart of rolling countryside, surrounded by pretty views and isolated (at the end of a communal road)

The house offers 165m<sup>2</sup> of living space. Restored country house of structural work having retained elements of character, starting with its gallery on the main facade (south exposure) of approximately 30m<sup>2</sup> the 29m<sup>2</sup> kitchen has been renovated in a country style (terracotta floor, fireplace with wood stove, equipped with appliances), glass door leading into the gallery. The adjoining living room offers 46m<sup>2</sup>, staircase leading upstairs (partially fitted attic), glass door leading into the gallery,

A clearance of 5m<sup>2</sup> leads to the boiler room. Access hatch to the cellar

A 23m<sup>2</sup> bedroom with shower, toilet, large cupboard, parquet floor, 2 windows

A bedroom of 24.5m<sup>2</sup>, parquet floor

A second hallway leads to a bedroom of 19.5m<sup>2</sup>, parquet floor; individual toilet, bathroom of 5.6m<sup>2</sup>

A laundry room with a shower area is accessible from the gallery, individual toilet

The cellar of approx. 38m<sup>2</sup>. is also accessible from the outside (cumulus location changed in 2024)

The current owners wanted to keep the original character of the place (choice of traditional single-glazed doors and joinery, terracotta floors in the living rooms, ceiling beams and paneling)

The house has central heating (old but functional oil boiler), the tank (1000L) is outside the house

The large typical barn with its crèches, two stables under the awning, an old tobacco barn at the rear and an old cellar forms a considerable usable space of around 500m<sup>2</sup>

A second tobacco dryer of 40m<sup>2</sup>
