• Description ref n°7118 •

This mansion is accompanied by its gîte, its 10x5m swimming pool heated by a heat pump and its pool house.

All the authentic elements have been preserved, rosettes on the ceiling, period cast iron radiators with moldings, wooden parquet flooring, impeccable staircase, terracotta tiles on the floor.....accompanied by decoration which respects the interior architecture.

A staircase made of wooden logs takes us into the wooded part of the park.

The main facade has beautiful balconies, completely renovated.

The main house is composed as follows:

- on the ground floor, an entrance of 9.84m², allowing us to discover a central staircase, a major asset of these master properties.

-followed by a living room of 23.58m² filled with light with a working fireplace,

-a sunny 23.86m² dining room, with a pellet stove

-a 9.67m² kitchen which remains equipped with an electric convector, with plenty of storage cupboards

First floor:

-A landing of 3.52m²

-A 24.45m² bedroom with its private bathroom.

-A bedroom of 24.24m²

-A 13.28m² bathroom typical of the origin of this property, identical to that of Joséphine Baker in her castle.

On the second floor:

-A 6m² landing with two corridors

-An office or bedroom of 9.07m² with a dressing room of 4m² (row)

-A bedroom of 18.61m²

-A bathroom of 10.68m²

-Independent toilets

-Insulated attic

Downstairs, there is a cellar of approximately 60m² containing the heat pump and a thermodynamic hot water tank.

Insulated cellar
