• Description ref n°7644 •

Stone property from the early 18th century with two dwellings and outbuildings on a plot of 18,763 m².

The main house, a mansion of approximately 280 m² is composed of;

On the ground floor, a main entrance hall living/dining room of approximately 45 m² with an imposing period open fireplace, a kitchen of approximately 20 m², a corridor giving access to four bedrooms of approximately 16 to 35 m², a shower room, a laundry room and toilets. A second space with a living room then a staircase leading to the first floor where there are two attic suites of approximately 14 and 37 m² then a fully convertible attic of approximately 80 m².

At the front of the house a terrace of approximately 90 m² then an imposing staircase leading to the level of the courtyard and the garden where there are in the basement and on the side of the house three vaulted cellars of approximately 12, 40 and 50 m² and other outbuildings such as a cellar and a storage area.

a second building consists of outbuildings used as a garage of approximately 50 m², a large barn of approximately 140 m², then the second dwelling in continuity of approximately 140 m².

This one is composed of;

On the ground floor, a main living room / dining room with open kitchen of approximately 45 m² and closed insert, a bedroom, a shower room / laundry room with toilet.

On the first floor; a hall / living room, two attic bedrooms of approximately 20 m² and a shower room.

A third barn-style building of about a hundred m².

A park planted with century-old trees as well as period features such as the imposing stone pillars marking the entrance to the property surrounds the buildings.

Sanitation is collective and is done by the sewer system.

The roofs in good general condition need a revision mainly at the level of the master's house.

Oil and electric heating.

Mixed double and single glazing.
